OUT WITH THE NEW AND IN WITH THE OLD!

a series of community art workshops finding creative uses for discarded materials

FREE WORKSHOPS

Fantasy Hats Headresses & More!

Wed., Oct. 19th, 6 - 8 pm

Micaela Seidel will lead 12 workshop participants in a unique workshop in forming hats on forms using felt, twisted paper and other found materials.

This workshop is the first in a series of recycled art workshops at OFFCenter called Re:EnVision! This workshop is FREE to the public, but please call 247-1172 or email: studio808@qwestoffice.net to register, since space is limited.

Micaela has been an art educator for over 15 years specializing in carnival arts.

Coiled Basketry with Newspaper

Wed., Oct. 26th, 6 - 8 pm

Joey Goss will lead participants in how to create bowls using traditional basket coiling and hand spinning techniques with a new "twist" -- repurposing used newspapers into a weaving medium!

Joey is one of OFFCenter's innovative artists who has used a variety of found and recycled materials from copper wire, newspaper, pine needles and more to create his own one-of-a-kind weavings.

FREE, but call 247-1172 to register.
